

Trainee Heat Pump Engineer

Job Description

Trainee for servicing and repairing Heat Pump Systems

Including:

- Servicing Air Source & Ground Source Heat Pumps
- Assisting with responding to emergencies, determining the issue, and making a repair
- Assisting with servicing/ installing Biomass and Solar Thermal Systems
- Effective communication with customers
- Solo visits and team work
- Reporting on visits
- Following safety regulations while work takes place
- Maintaining and developing your personal skills & knowledge
- Any other related work requested

Skills/ Capabilities

- Experience of plumbing/ electrical/ mechanical/ heat engineer desirable
- Qualifications in plumbing/ electrical/ mechanical/ heat engineer desirable
- Enthusiasm & full driving license essential
- Takes initiative and enjoys problem solving
- Good verbal communication skills
- Ability to record job notes
- Flexible and able to work solo or as part of a team

T&Cs

- Full time. Pay according to skills and experience
- Usual on-site hours; 8am - 4pm.
- Ad hoc overtime to meet the needs of the team and customers – overnight stays for remote sites.
- Travel to sites across Scotland.
- 28 days holiday per year including Bank Holidays
- Training and mentoring available.
- Company vehicle and uniform supplied.
- Training and mentoring provided

To apply email your C.V. to Isla Kerr at sales@glendevonenergy.co.uk

T: 01577 840579
E: sales@glendevonenergy.co.uk glendevonenergy.co.uk

Glendevon Energy Company Ltd
Tullibole Mill Farm
Kinross
KY13 0UL

